

The participant who has completed the Roommates section has learned about the following:

- Learning aspects of the law that are related to roommate living situations
- Identifying aspects of living together that are compatible with one's personal beliefs and lifestyle
- Engaging in problem solving with real-life situations